SUPPORTING THE HOMELESSNESS BILL

I was proud to back the second reading of the Homelessness Bill. This Bill if passed would update our homelessness laws and give more rights to those that are considered low priority cases.

Dear <<First Name>>

Since the news broke that the Future Fit programme was looking to move services to the Royal Shrewsbury Hospital from the Princess Royal Hospital I've been working to ensure that Telford's case is fully understood by decision makers. I'm going to keep raising my concerns about this process until a satisfactory response is given.

In addition to asking questions of the government about our hospital, I've also been lobbying for further funding for Telford and I again raised CSE concerns with the Government.

As Telford's MP I have a number of unique tools available to raise our profile and push for government support. Whether it is the Princess Royal Hospital or investment funding I will use every method available to me to secure positive outcomes for us all here in Telford.

It was good to catch up with our Prime Minister Theresa May. As a hard worker and firm believer in aspiration, Theresa is the perfect fit for what Telford expects from our Prime Minister.

Foreign owned businesses, particularly Japanese ones, have made a great contribution to Telford over the years. I caught up with Boris Johnson the Foreign Secretary to talk with him about the important role these businesses play in Telford.

The police do a demanding job under difficult circumstances. As people there to help us it is completely unacceptable for officers to be assaulted. Those that choose to assault police officers should face harsher penalties.

I'm pleased that locally, West Mercia's PCC is committed to introducing body worn cameras for officers as soon as possible that will hopefully cut down police assaults.
